FALL

Hot summer nights turn cool
And the leaves begin to fall.
We notice it with the beginning
Of school.

A tiny breeze loosens a
Rainbow of leaves
Red, brown, and orange
To the ground.

Through the piles we weave
Homeward to pumpkins and pies.
It's that time once again,
Back after a summer and
All our good-byes.

FIRST MONTH STARTS OFF WITH

September, first month of school. To some it is the bane of their existence, and to others it's the beginning of study and friends.

MaryAnne Moritz and Jeri Missory aren't looking forward to their first biology test.

The new course, BACHELOR LIVING, finds these two boys, Greg Colangelo and Bill Brooks contemplating the wonder of food.

It's only September and that Julie Miller is already selling tickets to a school event.

A FLOURISH!

Study, study, that's all Pat and Gary ever do!

Senior boys find working together helpful in the library, although not so with Mrs. Carmichael.

Bob Androw makes like a student and studies.

Drama Class brings the Helen Hayes out in Vicki Priess.

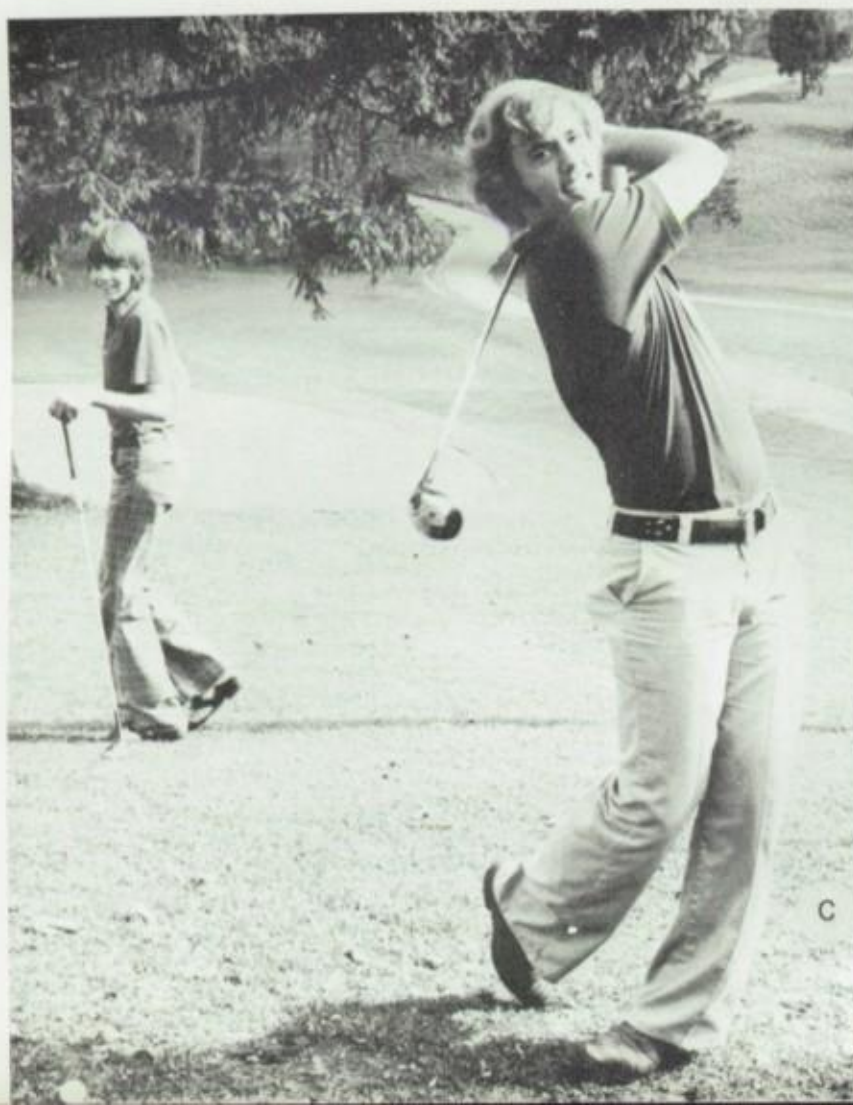

FORE! S.P. GOLFERS HIT THE GREENS!

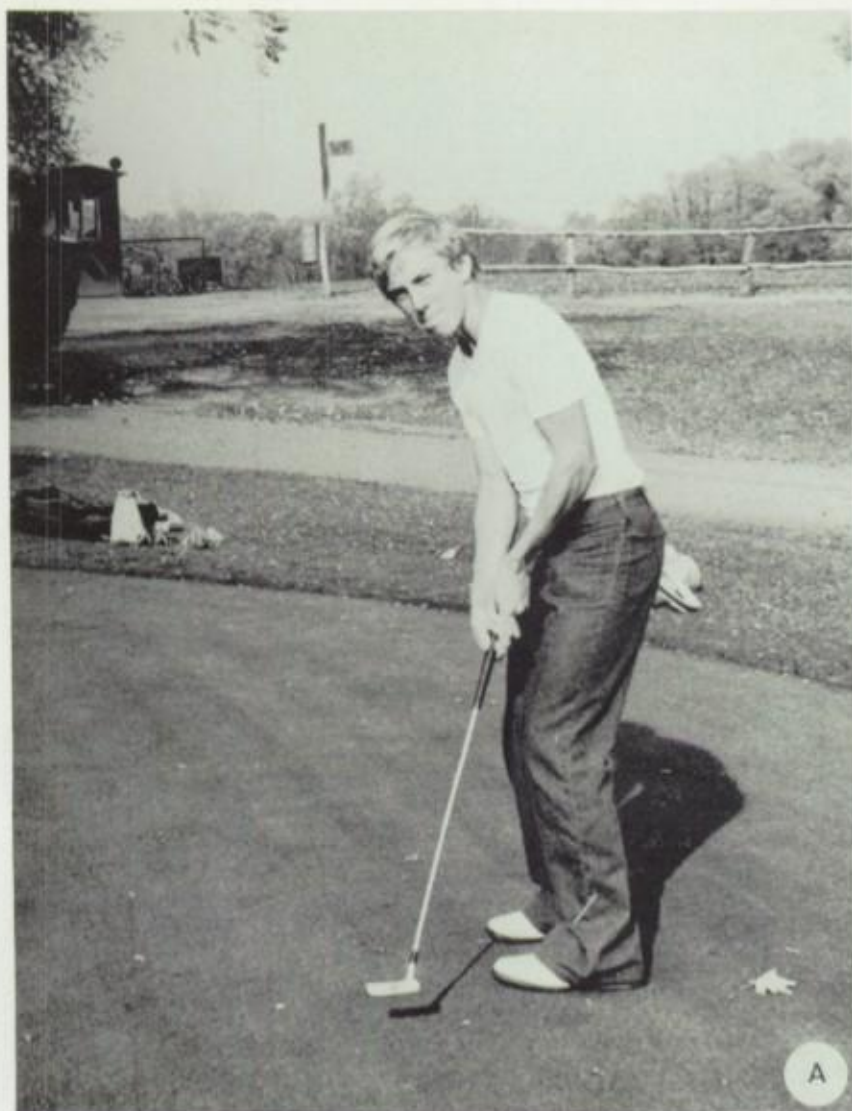

The 1975 golf season was in all sense of the word, a success. They compiled a respectable 8-7 record, which is quite good for the number of double and triple A schools they played. Even so, golf became a highlighted sport at St. Pete's.

Tom Hegarty led the team with an average of 40.2, Mike Lang and Bob Connelly followed with averages of 40.6 and 41.9 respectively. With help from Steve Wuesthoff, Mark Hunter, and Mike Deley, Varsity golf proved to lead the way.

A) Varsity golfers are (L-R) M. Deley, M. Hunter, T. Hegarty, M. Lang, B. Connelly, and S. Wuesthoff. B) Superior form is exhibited by none other than the Arnold Palmer of St. Pete's, Tom Hegarty. C) Mike Lang drives down the fairway as Mark Hunter watches from a safe distance.

A) Mike Deley shoots for par. B) Elton Con hopes for that beautiful "birdie." C) Members of the Junior Varsity Golf Team are (L-R) B. Lukach, B. Connelly, R. Kleshinski, and J. Brzezinski.

A dictionary definition for the word "reserve" states, "to keep in store for special use." And that's just what the Junior Varsity was all about. They were always there to back up the varsity, and racked up some remarkable scores. Bill Lukach and Barb Connelly considered their last year profitable when it came to the greens. Rick Kleshinski and Jim Brzezinski have a year of experience to boost them through their upperclassman years.

SMASH! SERVE! GIRLS' TENNIS

You've heard of Chris Evert. Well, where do you think she came from? A high school tennis team like ours! S.P. girl netters proved successful in the 1975 season.*

Varsity Netters are (L-R) V. Washington, P. Timan, K. Schaub, M. Hurley, E. Glodowski, M. Schmidt, C. Musille, A. Rath, and J. Voytko.

A) Beth shows her opponent who's boss. B) Julianne watches her smashing return. C) Carlene is in good form at net position.

Kim Schaub completely psyches out her opponent with her outstanding tennis ability.

IT'S A BEGINNING

Here come the freshmen, ready to pounce on all that is offered in their high school years. Make way for those frosh!

Jerry Byrne and Sandy Gentille get the drift of English I.

Big Lee reviews the situation.

Maria, Roseanne, Tami, Shawn, and Gina get involved at the yearbook meeting.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT SPRINGS

You have your basic Congress and your fundamental Parliament, but you have not seen anything until you've experienced St. Peter's law-making body. Student Council started off with a bang as the school year commenced. Led by energetic Elaine Glodowski, they sponsored such activities as a Back-to-School dance, used book sales, the ever beautiful Homecoming, hot chocolate sales, and even sucker giveaways. Announcements, assemblies, meetings, problems, organizing--all were the responsibility of St. Peter's Student Council, and they met up to them with professional attitudes.

Heading up this year's Student Council are (L-R) Teresa Brown, Mark Hunter, Elaine Glodowski, and Anne Rath.

A) Keen interest is shown by Beth Fisher and Carlene Musille at a Student Council meeting. B) President Elaine with advisor, Sister Linda, conducts the 18th Congress of St. Pete's High School.

INTO ACTION FOR 1975-76!

Tellin' it like it is. And those senior reps did just that! They are John Knapp, Lynda Mion, and Ellen Reilly.

Leading the freshman homerooms are (L-R) Lauri Schnug, Phil Kasper, and Donna DeCenso. They kept freshman hall informed.

Information was always being delivered to sophomore homerooms by Jeri Missory, Mary Anne Moritz, and Beth Fisher.

Student Council was much more than four officers and an advisor. Students at St. Peter's were kept informed by the reporters of their homerooms. Representatives from each could always be seen running to a Student Council meeting and finding out what's new at St. Pete's. Then, bursting with knowledge, they plunged into their respected homerooms babbling about new and old events.

Getting the scoop and announcing it. That was the job of junior reps Nancy Frasz, Janet Bernard, and Carlene Musille.

KEY PRODUCTION INCREASED

Greg puts finishing touches on a sports story.

The special editors for the Key are (L-R) Barb Connelly, Teresa Brown, Joan Mertler, Greg Keller, John Knapp, Dave Eichinger, Greg Colangelo, and Paula Timan.

It's nothing new for Steve to get out the ol' eraser to remove another dumb mistake he made.

CLUB PRODUCES OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCES

Heading the Drama Club are (L-R) Jim Schnug, Lynda Mion, Bill Miller, Ric Walter, Theresa Walley, and Chris Hurley.

Having a little laugh with Mrs. Castle is the make-up crew, Kim Seymour, Mary Anne Moritz, Sue Rogge, Juli Maxted, Sue Gurski, Laura Faulk, and Lynda Mion.

SERVERS DO THEIR PART

INTRAMURAL

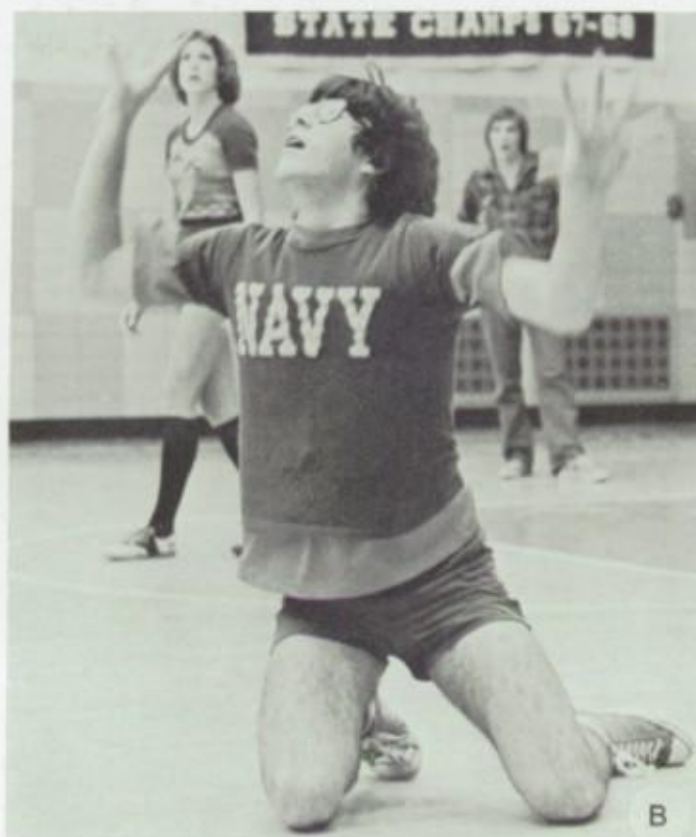

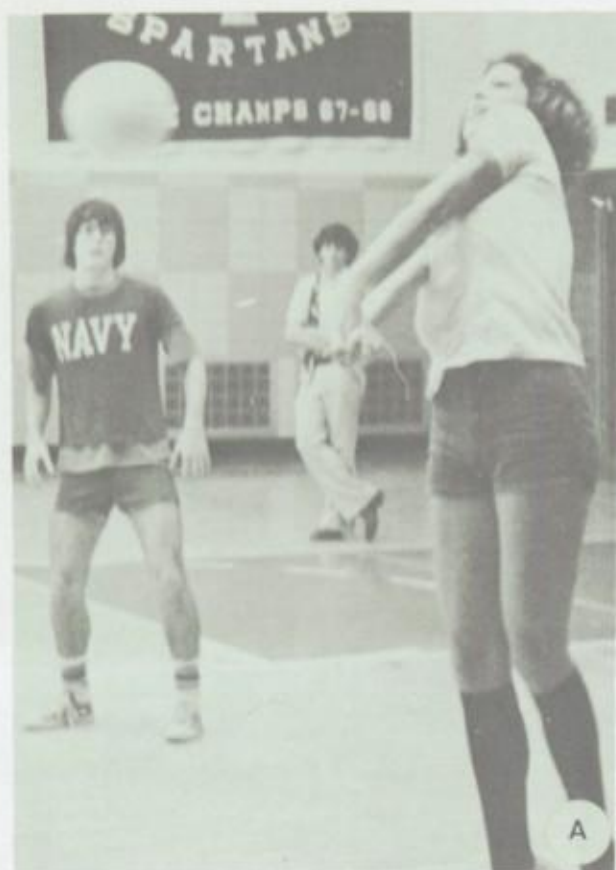

The Intramural volleyball winners holding their trophies are (L-R) Laura Faulk, Dan Berick, Sue Slack, Carl Metzger, Mike Shoemaker, Art Varga, and Peg Mulherin.

A) Art exerts himself to make sure he returns the ball. B) Mrs. Perl uses a judo chop to push it over the net. C) Here Sue and Mr. Maurer debate on whether the volley was fair or not. D) Miss De La Pena s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-s to make finger tip contact with the ball, and E) Mike shows winning form to spike it.

VOLLEYBALL A NEW SUCCESS

With the help of Mr. Confalone, a new activity was started. Teams composed of freshmen and sophomores or juniors and seniors played each other until only Nameless and Netters were left. Matching wits at an assembly, Nameless won. With another assembly Nameless defeated the faculty members.

A) Laura is in good position to smack the ball back. B) On his knees Dan sets it up for a spike. C) Carl punches the ball with a powerful spike. D) Landing on all fours Mike did get it over. E) Palming it, Rob heaves the ball over the net. F) Steve is truly amazed at how well his team is doing. G) With clenched fists Bill holds his breath to help the ball over.

VARIETY SHOW REVEALS

With talent from every class the Variety Show was enjoyable. A) Freshman Paul Monachino has an outstanding performance. B) Pat Sullivan gives a stirring solo performance. C) You'd never guess, but behind the suits are Erin and Shannon Wall. D) Proving to the audience he can shave, Ric Walter shows how fast he is. E) Carol Fisher doesn't seem to have a care in the world about being robbed by Mona Massey. F) In a simulated burlesque show Beth Weidner reveals her talents. G) On the lighter side Fidgets Steve Dropsey and Mike Callahan show they can be even shorter than life.

HIDDEN TALENTS!

A) Ric Walter and Bob Winston try to hopelessly convince the audience that they have sexy legs. B) Lauri Schnug danced her way into the audience's hearts with her banana routine. C) Bill Lukach's piano playing talent was heard through-out the show. D) For a more serious side of the show Bill Miller's skit about his dead dog was excellent. E) Jim Schnug's dramatic role was a sure sign of true talent. F) No Vicky Priess and Barb Connelly don't have the measles; they're just doing a Studs commercial. G) Being calm, cool, and collected was Elaine Glodowski's choice as she had a faultless performance.

ONE-TWO-THREE— LET'S GO!!!

With a not-too-successful volleyball year behind them, the Spartanettes never ran out of ambition, however. With only one win, there were a couple of close shaves. As for the Junior Varsity, they racked up a few more wins than the Varsity. A) At a practice session Joan gets ready to return the ball. B) With arms extended, Angie makes a direct hit for a perfect return. C) The gang gets ready to prepare themselves for another game as they gather in a circle to perfect their techniques. Missing from the Varsity picture are M. McHugh, L. Byrne, and M. Kerrigan.

The 75-76 Varsity Volleyball members are (T-B) E. Riley, C. Schmidt, T. Walley, L. Reindl, H. Kovacs, J. Lang, L. Colarosa, and A. Carmel.

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW

The Communications Club, new this year, was formed to provide services to the school library. Students assisted Mrs. Carmichael in collecting library passes, binding books, and having a magazine drive. Members include (L-R) Sue Marshall, Brenda Majors, Paul Monachino, Phil Holland, Joe Schnug, Jim Marshall, and Chris Baker.

In order to be a member of the Chess Club, one must be able to lose his queen in the first move and still checkmate Boris Spassky, Bobby Fischer, or Mr. Baloy. Without the last contender the Chess Club wouldn't be. Members are Pat Brogan, Bill Berlyak, Bill Brook, Steve Dropsey, Walther Bloch, Jim Brzezinski, Mark Kleshinski, Rick Kleshinski, Mike Baker, Joe Fanello, Carl Musille, Ted Koehler, John Hahn, Tim Hegarty, and Steve Wuesthoff.

THE SWEET SOUNDS OF THE SYMPHONY

The Mansfield Syphony Orchestra paid a visit again this year and the student body enjoyed it thoroughly. They performed everything from Classical to western hoe-down music. A) The violin section tunes up. B) Mr. Hall announces the next number. C) Mr. Hartung has trouble adjusting the microphone. D) Mr. Cronquist, the conductor, takes a bow.

SPARKS FLY AT BONFIRE AND PEP ASSEMBLY

Sparks of spirit and Spartan spunk spilled over Arlin Field where the annual bonfire, opening the basketball and wrestling seasons of 1975-76, was held. That spirit and spunk is demonstrated by a group of students dancing around the fire and three exuberant girls, Kathy Graham, Loretta Stagl, and Marcia Moore, just bursting with buoyancy! A pep assembly was held the next day.

"Big G's on our side!"

Nancy Frasz awards the best decorated car in the bonfire caravan.

SPARTAN ATHLETES CONQUER

The Reserve Team: (Seated L-R) Steve Dropsey, Mark Hunter, Jim Nadolsky, Tom Heringhaus, Mark O'Brien, Jim Speck; (Standing L-R) Coach Pat Maurer, Carl Metzger, Jim Currie, Steve Lang, Leo Brown, Jeff Keller, Ike Smith, and Manager Bob Lamb.

Mark O'Brien goes up for an easy two.

Carl Metzger waits for the jump ball.

GIVE A CHEER FOR OUR CHEERLEADERS!

THE MANY MOODS OF NOVEMBER...

WINTER

Winter is the season of thoughts.
With bright fire burning
And a blanket of white snow outside.
Your mind goes wild with thoughts.
What problem to settle first?
What thought to let out?

Life can be better.
With time to stop and think, and
Winter is the time to let it all out.

But yet snow is for running
And playing in.
And nothing is better than
A long winter walk.

Without winter days
Life can pile up on you,
And we all need change.

Winter is the time to stop
And think over it all.

CLUBS TO BROADEN

What can you say about a club that does nothing but good? Well, one can say plenty about St. Pete's Red Cross. Members include (L-R) S. Robison, A. Rath, C. Schmidt, L. Kleshinski, C. Laser, Mrs. Humeston, J. Mertler, E. Reilley, T. Keppler, B. Schwartz, C. Mlay, B. Robertson, L. Wentz, B. Miller, P. Mace.

After many hours in the dark room, the Photo Club produced many experienced photographers who aided the yearbook, the Key, and the sports department. Throughout the school year, this club learned the basics and the intricacies of the photograph. Members include (L-R) C. Preiss, C. Baker, B. Lamb, D. Siciliano, Sr. Bernard Marie (Advisor), P. Sweeney, K. Sweeney, S. Keppler, P. Siciliano, G. Mollica, M. Gesing, S. Stec, P. Monachino, and N. Berick.

OUR INTERESTS

Social Action Club, under their beloved leader Father Kennedy, literally leaped into activities. Their purpose was to help those who aren't as fortunate as we are. They collected food at Thanksgiving and Christmas time and distributed them to the needy families of the area. Throughout the school year they were nothing but good people to those they helped.

Members include (L-R) M. Demyan, K. Sgambellone, D. Shoemaker, M. Lang, A. Contra, P. Hahn, G. Smith, M. O'Leary, P. Prendergast, K. White, B. Butler, T. Switzer, and P. Wells.

Weekly masses, Ash Wednesday services, Eucharistic Observance, and Holy Days of Obligation were all under the jurisdiction of the Liturgy Club. Throughout the school year this group provided many meaningful and interesting liturgies.

They, in what they do, showed to people that St. Peter's is much more than a secondary school. It's a Catholic school!

Members include (L-R) J. Smith, D. Schemine, B. Lukach, J. Young, M. Hollister, P. Ludwig, and T. Walley.

Although small, the French Club tackles the huge country of France. They analyzed the language, celebrated a French Christmas, did research on the customs of the people, and just delved into le pays de francais.

Members include (L-R) J. Mertler, T. Ruhl, B. Miller, and T. Walley.

While Nancy Frasz opened her gifts in a drama class skit, Vicki Priess wondered if she'll get any.

Miss De La Pena was very surprised when Jim Schnug and Anne Rath rushed into her office at 8:00 AM with a Christmas Singing Telegram for her.

Sr. Mary Isotope and her precocious class performed their antics at the Christmas Assembly.

Bill Miller paused for a moment during his exciting visit to Paris, to pose in front of the Eiffel Tower.

MIDDLE-OF-THE-YEAR OPTIMISM

Even though December was supposed to be the dull time of the year, students found many ways and means to take that notion and throw it in the wastebasket.

a) Ellen Rogge and Sue Voytko seem to be happy that half of their freshman year still awaits them. That's excitement, huh? b) The seniors try to get a little relaxation and unwinding as they hold their annual bowling day. c) Freshman girls are just getting the feeling of what it is like being a high school cheerleader. d) Student Council sponsored a Christmas Dance, and one of the band members tunes up for another terrific number.

UNDERCLASSMEN HONORED FOR

Bob Winston and Laura Kleshinski were named Teenagers of the Month by the Elks Club for their leadership, service, citizenship, character and scholarship.

Junior Don Schemine and senior Julie Miller were honored by the Optimist Club during Youth Appreciation Week for their volunteer services.

Bruce Robertson was this year's recipient of the annual Betty Crocker Award.

THEIR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS

Juniors Janet Bernard and Jim Schnug and seniors Lucy Reindl and Jim Sgambellone (Not Shown) were the school winners of the American Legion Award.

Julie Miller was named Bicentennial Senior for entering the national Bicentennial Minute contest.

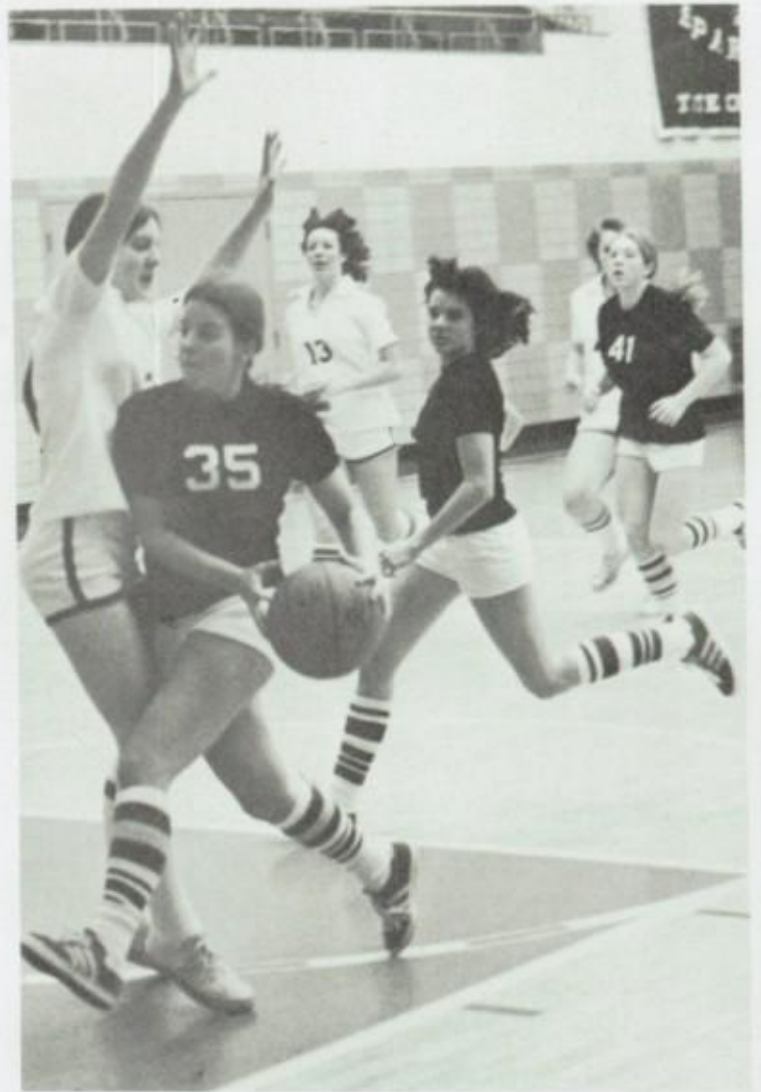

Jean Emmons and Mary Kerrigan were honored as Ohio University American History Finalists.

LONELINESS

Loneliness is a terrible thing;
Even listening to the church bells ring.
Some people sit alone all day;
Boy, I'm glad I'm not that way.
Some have no friends to help them mend their troubles;
Most have no hobbies,
And quite a few just sit in lobbies.
Can you imagine yourself being lonely?
You'd say, but if only, only only . . .
I had some one to talk to.
It doesn't matter if you are young or old;
It happens to many without being told.
So don't run away from your friends;
Just let your heart bend and bend and bend.

CLASSES OF 1978

According to the dictionary, "soph" means wise, and "moros" means foolish. So a sophomore is defined as a wise but foolish person. But at St. Pete's the Class of '78 will just be referred to as "Sophs."

Leading the class in a successful car wash and a booming daffodil sale for the American Cancer Society were (L-R) Vice-President Debbie Morman, Treasurer Mary Alton, Secretary Kim Seymour, and President Jim Nadolsky.

A SINCERE EVENING

The 1975-76 Homecoming Dance was held at Hallmark Cafeteria downtown. The smiling faces of some say it was a big success and loads of fun. The food and atmosphere, well prepared, made the evening even better.

A) Mistress of Ceremonies Elaine Glodowski carried through the Homecoming proceedings with great ease. B) Bruce Robertson goes up for two as the Spartans roll to victory over Navarre Fairless. C) Seniors Rosann Frasz and Mike Lang express a sample of the feelings enjoyed by most everybody at the dance.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

CLASSES OF 1977

CLASS OF '77 HAS EVENTFUL YEAR

Led by Dan Berick, Sue Slack, Mary Chirico, and LuAnn Colorosa, the Class of '77 encountered many new and interesting experiences. As "upperclassmen" they entered the world of "big business" competing with each other in their Candy Sale. Their acting ability was displayed in the Variety Show and the school play. The PSAT, SAT, and the army exams tested their scholastic capabilities, but most important, the Juniors learned what it is to care for one another, what life and love are all about.

It started with you
The beginning of new life
You were thunder clouds, flower buds and spring fever.
But you're gone now.

And as you leave,
Something warm and wonderful appears.
Bright colors, sunny days,
and fragrant flowers spring up all over.

It's the start of something new
And with it comes better hopes and dreams of the future.
Hello Summer!

PROM PROMISES TOGETHERNESS

The Senior Prom turned out to be a night to remember because of the smiles and friendship. The dinner and dance were at the beautiful Mohican Lodge. Walt Keppler's Band provided the music. The After-Prom was held at the MSC Center with the movie MASH.

a) Beth Evan has a girl-to-girl conversation with Annette Contra, while Mark Brado tries to listen in. b) Lynn Steele and Dave Demyan just can't seem to get out on the dance floor. c) Greg Keller and Shannon Wall take time to give a smile for the camera. d) Bill Miller has his picture taken with the lovely Barb Connelly. e) Sue Spognardi shows the class the latest in dances.

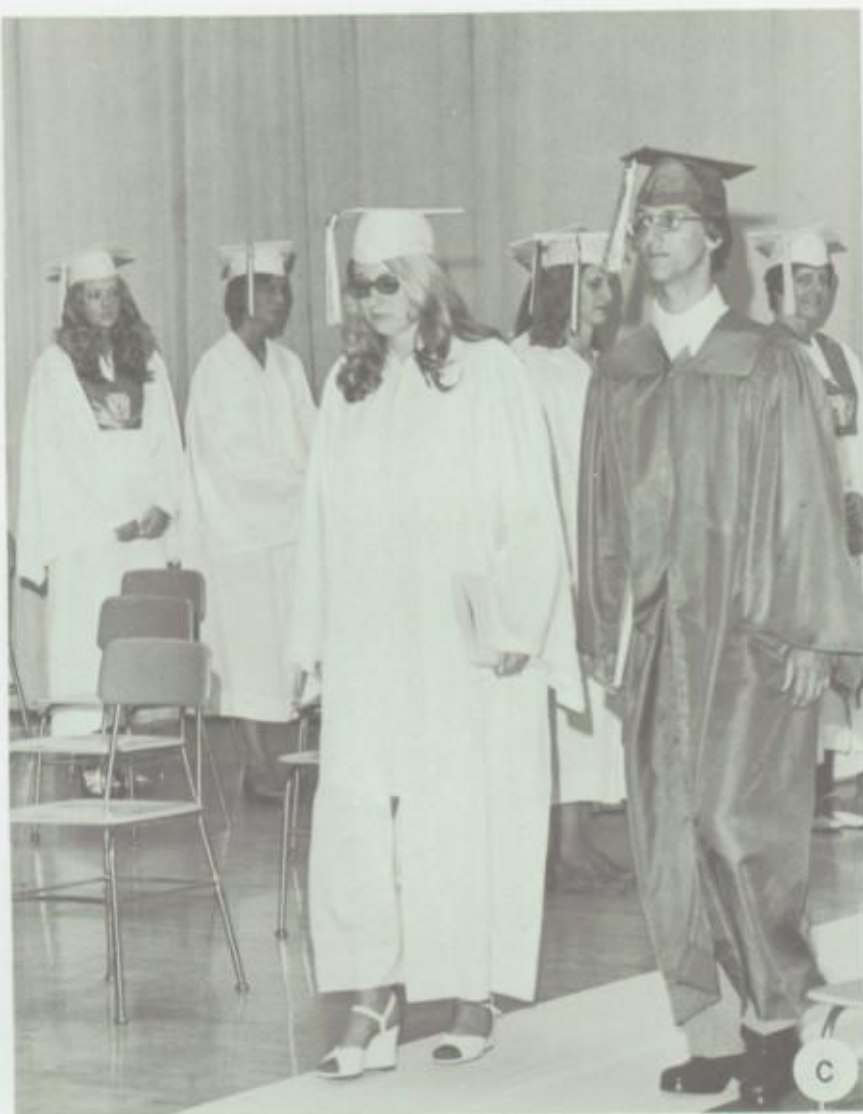

COMMENCEMENT BEGINS WITH BACCALAUREATE

June 6, 1976 will be remembered in the seniors' hearts forever. Graduating with the country's Bicentennial and, of course, wearing red, white and blue tassels set off the memorable occasion. Most of us leave behind our tears and can face tomorrow with a smile. Now as we all go our separate ways, we look back at our high school days and remember the good times we shared with each other. As close as we have been in the past years, we can say only that our friendship is forever! Now is the time to look back with happiness. . .and ahead with joy.

The Class of '76

a) Monsignor Dunn administers Holy Communion to the Senior Class. b) At nine in the morning, the seniors are thinking of their big day, beginning with Baccalaureate. c) Joan Mertler and Gary Marvicsin give the signs that everything went as expected at Graduation. d) With a new graduate in the family, Mr. and Mrs. McHugh just can't hold back their feelings.
